James S. Weeks has been spending a week in Boston.

Dr. Joseph T. Herrick, Mrs. Herrick and their son Paul, of Springfield, Mass., expect to sail for Europe next week and spend the summer touring on the continent in their automobile.

Church Notes.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Pythian Hall, Sunday morning service 10:45. Subject, "Matter." The reading room is in the Bank block, corner Main street and Eastern avenue and is open daily except Sunday, from 2:30 to 5 p. m., also Tuesday and Saturday evenings from 7:30 to 9.

Rev. Edward T. Fairbanks preached at the First Baptist church last Sunday and it is expected Rev. H. P. Leach, a missionary in Burma, who is now en route for this country, will preach next Sunday.

The subject of the sermon at Grace Methodist church Sunday morning will be "Mirrors," and at the evangelistic service in the evening, "Crossing the Line."

Special Lenten services will be held at St. Andrew's church this afternoon at 4:30 and this evening at 7:30; also on Friday evening at 7:30, the latter to be conducted by Rev. E. P. Lee. The services next Sunday will be Holy communion at 7:30 and 10:30 a. m. The subject of the sermon at the second service will be "The Power of Seemingly Insignificant Things." Cantata as mentioned elsewhere at 7 p. m.

A committee composed of Mrs. B. C. Peters, Mrs. D. D. Patterson and Miss Gertrude S. Menut are preparing to present a mystery play entitled "The Lady Catechism," by the members of St. Andrew's Sunday school the afternoon of Easter Day. A mixed quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Peters, Mrs. C. A. Cramton, and John McCarty, has been organized to assume charge of the music in St. Andrew's church at the Friday evening services during Lent.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

A meeting of the Vermont State Y. M. C. A. Camp committee, was held at Montpelier, Monday. Summer camp will be opened June 29 at North Hero and will last two weeks instead of 10 days as last year. The juniors will attend the first two weeks of the camp, then the seniors will have their two weeks. The juniors will be in camp during the Champion Tercentenary and two trips have been planned for them, one to Burlington and the other to Isle La Motte, which will give them an opportunity to see the celebrations.

C. A. Palmer was appointed physical director to the state camp.

The Danville basketball team met with defeat at the hands of the amateurs of the Intermediate department Friday night. The game was fast and only three fouls were called during the whole game, which makes it the cleanest game played in the Association during the year. The score stood 50 to 5.

The Amateurs played at Danville the previous week and were defeated by a score of 50 to 18.

All men interested in the formation of a chess club are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Thursday, March 18, at 7:30 p. m. Arrangements will be made for practice hours, and in a few weeks a tournament will be held.

School Notes.

The winter term of the public schools will close Friday, March 26. All except the rural schools will reopen Monday, April 5. The rural schools will reopen April 12.

Miss Jessie G. Mead has been obliged in consequence of illness to resign her position as teacher of the Stark school and Miss Lucy Hutchinson is finishing out the term.

The sale at the ninth grade Union school Saturday was a very satisfactory one, netting the pupils over $45. There are still several baskets and fancy articles that can be had at the school room. Parents and friends who are interested in helping on the work of the boys and girls are invited to call there at any time during the week.

Mid-Lent Cantata.

The three part cantata "Penitence, Pardon, and Peace," by J. H. Maunders, will be presented by the choir of St. Andrew's church Sunday evening in place of the regular service. The choir will be assisted by W. B. Atwood, tenor, and Harold O. French, baritone. The offering will be used for the benefit of the music fund of the church. The choir and organist have been putting especially faithful work into the preparation of this cantata and its presentation will be an added evidence of the good work they can do.

A School Sale.

On Saturday, March 20, at 1:30 p. m. in the 9th grade room of the Summer-ville school, there will be a sale of hand-wrought articles in leather, brass, copper, stenciling, basketry, tile-matting, fancy articles and burnt wood; also food, fruit punch, popcorn and candies.

Much interest has been manifested by the pupils in preparing for the sale, and it is hoped that it will be well patronized. The proceeds will be used to defray the expenses of the trip to Boston.

St. Johnsbury Post Office.

There is no part of the postal service where more pains is taken than in the handling of Registered Mail.

Everyone in the postal service that touches a piece of Registered Mail has to give his receipt for its transmission. The loss in this branch of the service is infinitesimal and the Government reimburses the sender for any loss up to $25. It is the only safe way to send money or valuable packages through the mail and the eight cents registry fee insures you against any loss up to $25. Try it the next time you have occasion to send anything valuable through the mail and you will be convinced of the safety and utility of the system.

Advertised letters for this week are—Ladies: Cullen, Miss Nellie P. Gray, Mrs. A. L. Lathorn, Mde. Yvonne Agnaisie; Willey, Mrs. H. Gentlemen: Donna, Harlie; Lathorn, Daniel; Quimby, J. B.

A. F. STONE, Postmaster.
